

SC-SERIES FGD MECHANICAL SEALS

Sharpe Mixers developed the SC-series family of slurry seals specifically for Flue-Gas Desulphurization applications. This demanding service requires a very durable seal that will operate without the use of flushing or other external lubrication. The integral bearing assures minimal shaft runout for trouble-free operation. Sharpe Mixers has over one thousand of seals of this design operating successfully in FGD service worldwide.

when quality counts

www.sharpemixers.com